

CAMBRY, THE PYRO

"Oh no! Oh no! It's on fire! Fire! Fire!"

You and the wode had a mutual dislike from day one, which is tough when you're born a wode elf. You always hated the cold, the damp, the dirt, the grasping branches and peeping eyes. The wode wasn't a big fan of you either: the gift of fire can be a curse when your house is flammable.

When you were finally exiled, it was a relief to everyone involved. In the big city, they appreciate someone with your gifts, and people pay you to burn things and set off explosives (not that you wouldn't do it for free).

What you're in for: A midwinter fire or two got a little out of hand, and one of house Verona's palaces went up in a blaze—unfortunately one containing a lot of black powder. Bang! Poof! Boom!

Your plea: "I'm sorry, I hope everyone was okay! At least the fire warmed up the neighborhood, and it was so pretty!"

De Caserta's Notes: "She's a powerful pyromancer and an explosives expert, and she's more dependable than she appears. Half of her firebug routine is an act. The other half... is real, unfortunately."

Title: Light Up

"Come closer. No, you're not in any danger. Fire is perfectly safe. It's never done me the least bit of harm."

Prerequisite: You burned a wode heartwood tree.

Effect: The first time each game session that you start an uncontrolled fire or deal fire damage, you gain a hero token. As a maneuver, you can cause your hair and body to burn with harmless flames, or extinguish the flame. While burning, you have the following traits:

- You shed light for 5 squares.
- You gain an edge on tests made to distract, intimidate, or perform.
- As a maneuver, you can set fire to adjacent, unattended flammable objects.

Complication: Uncontrolled Burn

When you're setting explosives or channeling your natural fire affinity, you can sometimes get a little too enthusiastic. When you roll a power roll for an ability that deals fire damage in an area, the area increases by 1 if you achieve a tier 2 result, or by 2 if you achieve a tier 3 result.
