

DORGRIM, THE NIGHT TERROR

"You think it's a curse? To be stronger, faster, better than you? Then behold my curse! Bwa ha ha ha!"

You never really fit in at home, or in that mercenary troop, or in the dozens of other holes where you tried to hide yourself. Capital is the proper home for someone like you, a loner with a bit of a dark side. Well, maybe "bit of a dark side" is underselling it: your dark side is a towering, fanged, hyena-faced killer.

What you're in for: The monster called the Night Terror puzzled the Mariners for years. Mangled bodies would turn up in alleyways, with eyewitnesses describing a monstrous fanged monster loping from the scene. Mariners would search the neighborhood, but no such monster could be found. Then one day you made a simple mistake. After returning to your true form, you tracked a blood trail right to your door.

Your plea: "No cage can hold me! I'll get out, and when I do, I'll rip out your guts!"

De Caserta's Notes: "I've known quite a few violent criminals, but no one else deals in violence with quite as much... enthusiasm... as Dorgrim. And he's cunning about it too: the Night Terror evaded us for years."

Title: True Self

"People tell me to resist the urge to become a monster. I've got news for them. I'm a monster either way."

Prerequisite: You committed robbery and murder while in your true form.

Effect: While not in your stormwright form, you gain an edge on tests made to hide, sneak, or steal. The first time each game session that you adopt your stormwright form, you gain a hero token.

Complication: Truer Self

Your stormwright form resembles an immense beast with a gnoll's demonic face—and a gnollish lust for blood. When you or a creature within 5 squares of you takes damage while you are in your true form, you must either take 5 damage which can't be reduced in any way or use Aspect of the Wild as a free triggered action, adopting vukien or hybrid form. Whenever you adopt your vukien or hybrid form, you can't change back to your true form for 1 hour.

While in vukien or hybrid form, when you use an ability that reduces at least one creature to 0 Stamina, you can spend 1 Recovery.
