

LAASH, THE CHAINED KNIGHT

"All of us wear chains. Mine are just visible."

Once there was a devil who dared to found an eighth city of Hell, one set in the mortal realm. Aravath's empire stretched over many Ixian islands, and his chief soldiers were the Chained Knights: enslaved draconians. You were born into this army. You rose to become Aravath's chief general, waging his wars for him, in exchange for a gift: your daughter's life. She'd be sent away to Capital to live free.

What you're in for: Your legions marched unchecked through Ix and Rioja, putting conquered people to the chain, until your army stood at the gates of Capital. You were met not by a general but by a diplomat, who conquered you with a single word.

Your daughter's name.

Your plea: "Guilty. Guilty from the moment I was hatched."

De Caserta's Notes: "He caused quite a kerfuffle when he showed up on Capital's doorstep with an army. But there's no denying his military acumen or personal prowess, and as long as his daughter is a student at the Academy he won't dare turn against us."

Title: Hell's Soldier

"If you doublecross me, I'll kill you, and that will be just the beginning of your torment."

Prerequisite: You have sworn an oath of loyalty to a devil.

Effect: The first time each game session that you make a test to intimidate an NPC, you gain a hero token. When you make a test to intimidate an NPC, you gain an extra edge on the roll. If the NPC is affected by your Judgment ability, you can roll the test twice and use the highest result.

Complication: Link in the Chain

You are wrapped in barbed black chains that can't be removed. These chains are a symbol of your servitude to the devil Aravath and also a weapon you can use in his service.

While a creature is under the effect of your Judgment ability, they are also wrapped in barbed chains. You have the following ability.

Reel In (1 Wrath)

You pull an invisible chain and your captive lurches toward you.

Magic

Maneuver

Ranged 10

One creature affected by your Judgment ability

Effect: The target is pulled up to a number of squares equal to twice your Presence. If they use their Stability to reduce this movement, they take damage equal to twice their Stability.
